

We've Been Invited.....

To ride on our adopted Buoy Tender ASPEN

Would a four-hour 'cruise' around San Francisco Bay, around Alcatraz Island, under the Golden Gate Bridge, back along the SF waterfront and back to Yerba Buena Island sound refreshing???

The Commanding Officer, LCDR Roy Brubaker, has extended an invitation for a 'Day on the Bay' in appreciation of our relationship and support for his ship and its crew.

When: July 30, 2011

Time: 0900 (9 a.m.) On board ASPEN

Where: Yerba Buena Island

(Take Treasure Island off ramp from Bay Bridge. Follow signs to "Coast Guard" up and over YBI to USCG gate. Be sure to have vehicle registration, insurance, photo ID's for all.)

Who: Contra Costa Council members & families

Cost: $ 15 donation per person includes lunch

(Council will present a donation to Ship's MWR Fund)

We have somewhat limited spaces allotted to us, so it must be CC Council members/families making the 'voyage'. Children age 8 and above welcome. Warm clothing and shipboard-type shoes urged.
