

U.S. NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS

www.seacadets.org

Diablo Squadron and
TS Lorraine Hughey

HOME DRILL!!!

- HOME DRILLS
- FLEET WEEK
- VOLUNTEERING
- NEW CADET

Saturday drill was a busy and productive drill. Cadets started the day by marching To the Martinez Marina and participated in rigorous physical Training and team Building Exercises lead by Instructor Pult. Cadets then marched through Downtown Martinez and Back to the drill hall to practice color guard and close Order drills. Cadets were then Instructed on the proper way to handle the American flag including raising, lowering and folding of flag. The remainder Of the day was spent working in groups on their Coursework in anticipation Of promotions. The cadets ended the day with 3 NSCC Cadets promoting to PO3 and 7 NLCC cadets promoted to LC2.

NLCC Cadets Henriquez (pictrued above) receiving his LC2 promotion certificate. His shipmates Whitman, Moore D, Moore A, McCarthy, Marquis, and Aguilera also received their LC2 promotions.

above), Karnthong and Howe's hard work pays off as they receive their next promotion to Petty Officer 3rd class (PO3).

Fleet Week- U.S. Coast Guard Cutter George Cobb

Diablo Squadron and TS Lorraine Hughey cadets enjoyed a day on the bay during fleet week aboard the USCG Cutter George Cobb. this was the first time for some of the cadets onboard a Cutter and each And every one of them enjoyed the experience. Thank you to Our parent volunteers who helped to make this event a success

USS Hornet Museum –Monsters Ball

USCG Station Alameda- Harvest Festival

Diablo Squadron staff member attends the 2014 Harvest Festival along with cadets and staff from Hancock Div. in support of Coast Guard Families. Duties included set up and serving of food, clean up manning game booths and crowd control.

New Cadet

Training Ship Lorraine D. Hughey would like to welcome Cadet Sepulveda as their newest member.

Cadet Sepulveda joined the unit this month and has already attended his first home drill where his new shipmates helped him to navigate through the day and get started on his coursework.

Sepulveda has also participated in community events and is fully engaged in the program